The hunt is carried out in the Sierra Fria Mountains where hunters will find a good population of turkeys. Hunters need to arrive in Aguascalientes and begins with travel to the lodge (1 hour and 10 minutes) and hunting will begin next day on morning. Hunters will then return to Aguascalientes in the morning and fly to the United States at noon.

You need to Flight directly from Dallas or Houston to Aguascalientes.

We recommend to you to Flight from Dallas, because this Airline arrive to Aguascalientes at noon (1:15pm the most of times) and depart when you finish your hunt at 1:45 pm (the most of times).

Additional Details:

- 12 gauge shotgun with #4 or #5 shot ammunition (provided) or bow (not provided) are recommended for the hunt.
- Groups are a maximum of six hunters.
- Any animal shot and hurt is considered a kill.
- Non-hunters are charged $250/day.
- Beginning in 2016 the United States Department of Agriculture requires a 3-177 permit to import bird products into the United States. This permit must be obtained in advance from a licensed taxidermist. Recommended taxidermists include:

Hazel Creek Taxidermy / Cally Morris
21338 Chasewood Trail
Green Castle, MO 63544
Office: 660-488-5688 Cell 660-626-3966
Webpage www.hazelcreekinc.com / email Hazelcrk@nemr.net

To reserve a hunt 50% of the total cost is required at booking. The remaining 50% is required 60 days before the hunt. Costs are non-refundable, but substitute hunters are accepted.
